SKILLS FOR LIFE/ FUTURE LEARNING AND EMPLOYMENT

Communication skills are central to language learning and the learning of French. These skills allow students to access further study and support their employability, as well as preparing them for social and civic life. The umbrella term 'Communication' encapsulates many different skills:

- Micro listening & reading skills; beyond comprehension and inference, we focus on:
 - phonemic processing.
 - syllable processing.
 - Segmenting.
 - lexical retrieval.
 - Parsing.
 - meaning building.
 - discourse building.
- Manipulation of grammar in speech and writing.
- Creative writing and developing a speaking and writing style.
- Recognition and use of register.
- Voice projection and oracy skills more generally.
- Fluency.
- Cultural Awareness and developing empathy for other cultures.
- Developing language learning knowledge to support the learning of new/ other languages.
- Transcription.
- Translation.
